Sharing Information

Schedule

The main content area features a calendar for April 2006. The calendar is currently in "TEXT / CALENDAR" view, as indicated by a red box and the text "View option". The calendar shows various events: "SAN DIEGO CONVENTION" (April 2-6), "PRODUCT RELEASE" (April 11-13), "Columbus Day" (April 19), "SALES FORUM" (April 24-26), and "BOARD MEETING" (April 28). A yellow box with an arrow pointing to the "Members" list contains the text: "Calendar type User can see team schedule. If user click the name of members, he/she can see their individual work schedule." The "Members" list includes Paul, Amy, and Tyler, with a "Show all members" link below it. Another yellow box with an arrow pointing to the "Meeting" list contains the text: "User can see meeting information." The "Meeting" list includes: "04-04, 12:00 Design", "04-08, 15:30 FINAL", and "04-05, 22:10 ASSIGN".

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text: "ET@MO | The Sakai Project | University of Missouri | Powered by Sakai". Below the footer, there is a copyright notice: "Copyright 2003, 2004, 2005 The Sakai Foundation. All rights reserved. Discussion

The main content area is divided into two sections, both with red boxes around their titles:

- Discussion Schedule: A table with columns: date, title, member, discription, and method. The data row shows: 04-14, design prototype, desing team, Say hello, video conference.
- Discussion Output: A table with columns: date, title, member, discription, and method. The data row shows: 04-01, set up team, managers, Pick teams, audio conference.

On the left side, below the menu, there is a box labeled "users present:" containing the name "Kyungbin Kwon".

Two yellow callout boxes provide additional information:

- The first callout box, positioned over the "Discussion Schedule" table, states: "User can see discussion schedule and methods, such as text based chat, audio conference, video conference".
- The second callout box, positioned over the "Discussion Output" table, states: "User can see discussion result."

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text: "Powered by Sakai". Below this, there is a copyright notice: "Copyright 2003, 2004, 2005 The Sakai Foundation. All rights reserved. The screenshot shows the Sakai Group Project Manager interface. At the top, there is a header with the Sakai logo and the text "Group Project manager". A navigation bar below the header contains links for "project 1" through "project 8", with "project 3" highlighted in green. On the right side of the header, there is a "Logout" link. On the left side, there is a vertical menu with options: "Home", "Schedule", "Discussion" (highlighted in blue), "Edit Docu", and "Cabinet". The main content area features a "Discussion Title & discription" box at the top, followed by a large purple box labeled "Shared Monitor". To the right of the "Shared Monitor" box, there is a list of options: "options", "-volum", "-monitor size", and "-memo tool". Below this list, a yellow box contains the text "There are some options." To the right of the "Shared Monitor" box, another yellow box contains the text "Users can share their monitor with team members. This concept is like dual monitor in one computer." At the bottom left, there is a "users present:" section with the name "Kyungbin Kwon". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text "Powered by Sakai" and a copyright notice: "Copyright 2003, 2004, 2005 The Sakai Foundation. All rights reserved.
